

Workshop:

“How to Use WWI Draft Registration Records”

Monday, March 20, 2017

7:00 PM -9:00 PM

Miller Board Room, 2nd Floor, Menorah Park

Your instructor:

Ken Bravo,

Past President Jewish Genealogy Society

VP, International Association of Jewish Genealogical Societies

In 1917 and 1918, approximately 24 million men living in the United States and born between 1872 and 1900 completed a World War I draft registration card. If your family has such ancestors, you are likely to find at least one relative's information within this large collection.

Learn how to find and use these cards to add to your family tree.

Bring your Wi-Fi enabled laptop.

Free to JGSC members who have paid 2017 dues.

$25 for non-members.

Non-members may apply fee to membership dues but no later than conclusion of the program.

(limited to 25 participants)

Level: Advanced Beginners & above.

To register: return attached form by email to 2ndVP@ClevelandJGS.org or by US Mail to: Beginners' workshop, 14894 Grant Dr., Middlefield, OH 44062 (Enclose check payable to Jewish Genealogy Society of Cleveland if not member.)